Testo, Savour Food Safety International and Savor Safe Food Announce Partnership

WEST CHESTER, PA (April 1, 2019)- Testo North America, world leader in the design, development, and manufacture of portable measurement instrumentation and food safety solutions, announced today its partnership with Savour Food Safety International Inc. (SFSI), a consulting organization that works with clients to develop long-term food safety culture and behavior change programs, and Savor Safe Food (SSF), which provides services to help businesses comply with health department regulations while protecting employee and customer health and safeguarding brand protection.

“We are thrilled to partner with Savour Food Safety International and Savor Safe Food to share expertise within the industry,” says Eric Moore, Director of Food Safety and Regulatory Compliance at Testo North America. “This partnership will positively impact our shared objectives in the overall advancement of food safety.”

“This partnership allows us to provide innovative technology to our clients from farm to fork so they can provide safe & delicious food to their customers,” Gina Nicholson Kramer, Executive Director Savour Food Safety International and Savor Safe Food. “It is time to be smart with food safety and quality tools that allow employees to efficiently, consistently and accurately document important information that provides data to support continuous improvement. A sustainable solution that provides actionable data.”

About Testo North America

Testo North America is a leader in the design, development, and manufacture of portable measurement instrumentation. With the launch of a fully integrated system (Hardware/Software/Services) focused on fulfilling the compliance gap, the Testo Saveris system leads the food safety market into a new era.
