FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Testo Supports AFFI's Food Safety Program

AFFI AMERICAN WEST CHESTER, PA (January 29, 2019)-
FROZEN FOOD Testo North America, world leader in the design, INSTITUTE development, and manufacture of portable measurement instrumentation and food safety solutions, announced today its support of the American Frozen Food Institute (AFFI) in their Food Safety Program for 2019.

As part of the partnership, Testo will be an associate member of AFFI throughout 2019 and will be involved in various AFFI events, including AFFI's Food Safety Leadership Conference and AFFI-CON. Testo will also support AFFI's new website, Food Safety Zone, set to launch later next month. The Food Safety Zone will serve as a one-stop food safety resource for all frozen food companies. Manufacturers will be able to search for, access and incorporate best food safety practices into a company's food safety plan.

"We are excited to be working with AFFI to provide the frozen food industry with valuable resources related to food safety," says Eric Moore, Director of Food Safety and Regulatory Compliance at Testo North America. "Testo will bring a unique perspective to AFFI's Food Safety Program as a provider of advanced quality management solutions."

"We are pleased to welcome Testo's support of AFFI and our joint commitment to advancing food safety," said AFFI President and CEO Alison Bodor. "In our pursuit to raise the bar on food safety practices, it's important we have an ally like Testo to help support AFFI's food safety initiative and our members' continued investment in food safety."

About Testo North America

Testo North America is a leader in the design, development, and manufacture of portable measurement instrumentation. With the launch of a fully integrated system (Hardware/Software/Services) focused on fulfilling the compliance gap, the Testo Saveris system leads the food safety market into a new era. Executives can now automate checks, create visibility and improve accountability. Testo Saveris changes the dynamic from manual, paper-based reporting to automated exception management through software notifications.

About AFFI

The American Frozen Food Institute (AFFI) is the member-driven national trade association that advances the interests of all segments of the frozen food and beverage industry. AFFI works to advance food safety and advocates before legislative and regulatory entities on the industry's behalf to create an environment where members' foods and beverages are proudly chosen to meet the needs of a changing world.
